This and That

My youngest son was playing school with Daddy this past week. After spelling and math, he decided it was time for needs versus wants. Apparently this is something his class has spent some time with in the last week or two. He gathered the dry erase board along with a few markers and we were set. A center column divided the board and the headings were clearly identified. It was Daddy’s turn to begin offering items for the “Needs” column. The things written were: Air, Water, Food, Clothing, Shelter, Medical Care, etc. Next came the “Wants” side of the board. I offered things such as, television, toys, “Name Brand” shoes and clothing, etc. After playing school, I began to think of how this is so very relevant to all of us today. Let’s take a closer look at some human needs versus what most want. Consider:

NEEDS		WANTS
Jesus	Luke 10:42	Fancy buildings and agendas
Bible	Matthew 4:4	“Brotherhood” Magazines, “Best Seller Lists”
Food/Water	Proverbs 30:8-9	Caviar, Choice Meat Cuts, Bottled Water
Clothing	1 Timothy 6:8	Name Brand Clothing
Home	Mark 5:19; John 19:27	Houses better than those around us. Choice cul-de-sac neighborhoods
Work	John 5:17	High Rank - Biggest “Title”

Are we thankful and content with attaining our needs or are we struggling to get what we want? Think about it. ✍
