Find Courage Through Prayer

Strength and courage aren't always measured in medals and victories. They are measured in the struggles they overcome. The strongest people aren't always the people who win, but the people who don't give up when they lose.

Sister Sue Napier passed on Saturday, June 20. Sue worshiped with this congregation, as she was able and will be missed. We find comfort knowing that she had accepted Jesus as her Savior. Our sincere sympathy is extended to her husband, Bro. Paul. Please remember him in your prayers.

This and That

Well, VBS is over for another year. Though our numbers were down a bit from previous years, we still had a good number that participated. The kids seemed to enjoy themselves a great deal as they learned about Fishing with the Master. It takes a great deal of planning, working, and reacting to make this go over smoothly. There are many who worked hard to make this years VBS such a great event.

- Those who did inventory and made sure we had the decorations, workbooks, craft materials, foods, etc. necessary.
- Those who decorated the building.
- Those who transported children and adults to the church building and home, whether by the church van or private auto.
- Those who led the children in singing before and after classes.
- Those who taught the individual classes.
- Those who made the snacks and then cleaned up afterward.
- Those who led prayers.
- Those who made the cookout a success.
- The adults who found the time to come out each evening and participate in an adult class.
- Parents who sent their children to VBS.
- The kids and young adults that took the time to come out each night.
- Those who invited others to come.
- Those who took all the pictures we get to put on the web site.
- We thank God for making it all possible.

I know I am probably forgetting someone. So, if you participated in any way I want to personally thank you. Vacation Bible School is an important way to teach others about Christ. The memories formed and the friendships made will last a lifetime. You never know who may be led to obey Jesus by your actions this week. Now...you deserve a break. So...take five minutes to rest and then start thinking about next year! Think about it. Daniel Newell.....
