The Christian life is like running a race (Hebrews 12:1-2, 1 Cor. 9:25-27). If one falls, he should get up and try again. The new birth is a sort of “land of beginning again”; so is a restoration of an erring child of God.

Please remember those who come before the congregation asking for the prayers of the church. Also please continue to encourage and support our young in the congregation as they strive to live a Christian life.

This and That

Our country just celebrated 232 years of freedom from unjust rule. Our founding fathers were very courageous in agreeing to form a Declaration of Independence and thus embark on an incredible journey. Combatants from several nations besieged the young country in its formative years. Men and Women, strong and brave, arose to show their determination to remain free. Battles raged and some of the citizens of this nation fell, only to be replaced by one equally unyielding. Finally the yoke and fetters were thrown off and the rest is history.

As Christians, we share a similar path to freedom. We first have to resolve to reject the oppression of sin. We must begin our journey of freedom by discarding sin’s shackles through obedience to the gospel, Romans 6:17-18. We then lay aside all evil from within and desire God’s word as our growth plan to become a holy nation, a nation that must yet battle fleshly lusts which war against the soul, 1 Peter 2:9-11. We submit ourselves under the leadership of the pastors (elders) evangelists and teachers who watch for our souls. This allows the perfect environment to maximize personal growth and thereby supply the church that which our talents are, Ephesians 4:11-16. The church then grows from within as much or more so as externally by attending services with our children as often as possible and then practicing together at home what we learn 2 Timothy 1:1-5
