This and That

How to reach others and achieve unity? Try James' approach: "But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy." James 3:17

The Holy Spirit, through James, is making the case for unity through a bridling of the human tongue. Letting God do the talking for us. Accepting what He says and following through with what He requires. Problem is, most of us find this difficult to accept. Seems as though we want to put our 2 cents worth in. However, 2¢ can be very costly in the end. God's formula is:

- Pure Wisdom first. The Bible must be placed first and accepted by all of us as the standard of righteousness.
- Peace should be sought based upon what the Bible says.
- We should always be gentle in our dealing with others when presenting the doctrine of Christ.
- Easy to be intreated means that we find it easy to obey what the Lord says in his word and we are easily approachable.
- The outgrowth of our obedience to the word is a life filled with kindness and goodwill towards others, without being partial or hypocritical.

By following this example we are sure to have greater success in reaching others.
