Our Sympathy goes out to the family of Izetia Pittman (sister of Ellaray Campbell and mother-in-law of Vivian Pittman) who passed away last week.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These Commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down, and when you get up.

Deuteronomy 7:12

There's a lot to be said for a man who loves his family enough to teach them about God and his commands, so they too might live with him in eternity. Study with your children. It teaches them the Word and creates beautiful memories of you for them to treasure.

Our food pantry is in need of nonperishable items. This is a great way to help others less fortunate.

What do I add to the Church with my life? What am I allowing others to add to my life through my associations with them? Am I taking advantage of all that God has added to my life?

This and That

Leadership is a very important subject. A tremendous amount of time and energy is spent annually in the business world to improve the leadership of the production staff. You see, good leadership is supposed to improve and increase the chances of attaining the desired results. The supposition is that those being lead want to produce the desired results and are willing to follow the leader(s). However, above all, there must first be a plan. Therefore the equation looks like this:

$$Plan + Good Leaders + Followers = \textit{Desired Results}$$

Lets take these business principles into the religious realm. The Desired Result is to make heaven our home. Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you", John 14:2. The Followers are Christ's disciples, (Matthew 16:24-25). The Leaders are the eldership, ministers, and teachers of the gospel, Ephesians 4:11-14. If any one or more of these principles are removed, the desired result is jeopardized. If we truly want to make heaven our home we should want it more that anything, be willing followers, have good leaders (i.e. elders, ministers, and teachers), that follow the plan, which is the Bible. Are we doing what we should be doing? Think about it.
