Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity to accept the people I cannot change.
The courage to change the only person I can - myself.
And the wisdom to know the difference between when it is my problem or their problem.

*Christ has no hands but our hands to do His work today
He has no feet but our feet to lead men in His way
He has no tongue but our tongues to tell men how He died
He has no help but our help to bring them to His side.*

This and That

Think about the earth and its inhabitants at the time of creation. Everything was exactly as God wanted it to be. The land was perfectly created, as was the streams, rivers, lakes, and oceans. The trees, grass, and shrubbery was designed and placed just so. The animals were created fully-grown and capable of reproducing after their kind. The birds were decorated in the most wonderful of colors and sang with voices and songs invented by the most Holy One. Fish inhabited the streams, lakes, and oceans, which, even now, are not fully explored and understood. Man and woman were “fearfully and wonderfully” made and placed in God’s garden to enjoy the work of his hands. How beautiful everything must have been. Even today, the word Eden evokes thoughts of purity, innocence, and perfection.

Me think things have changed somewhat since God left off from creating. However, the word of God is designed to give us a little taste of heaven and the means of re-acquiring the beauty and perfection that once existed. Paul states that those in Christ are created new (2 Cor. 5:17). David resolves: “And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us:” Psalms 90:17. True Christianity is a beautiful thing! Are you a Christian? You can become one today.
