HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.....Proverbs 4.1

Children need direction when they are young. If we wait until they can choose for themselves the choice will have already been made. And the choice may not be a good one.

.....that their hearts may be encouraged..... Colossians 2:2nkj

Please remember our food pantry by bringing in non-perishable food items. This is a wonderful way to help those less fortunate than ourselves.

Sometimes He lets the Storm rage and calms His child.*

This and That

I often look back to when I was a child and recount vivid memories of visits to grandparents, vacations, Bible School, quiet family evenings together and so on. I was fortunate to have been raised in a family where God’s word was respected and obeyed. Therefore both parents were present and we children were raised in a Christian environment. Of all memories, perhaps my favorites are times when we did things together as a family, such as reading together, watching a (“G” rated) movie, or playing a game outside in the yard. It was fun being a child and I will always cherish those times. However, there comes a time when we must “grow up” and assume more responsibility than putting away our toys or cleaning behind our ears. So it is with being a Christian. The Apostle Paul said, “When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.” 1 Cor. 13:11. The thought of growing up can be scary at times, however, it is inevitable. The world needs grown-ups to help make decisions and provide for the welfare of others. The church does also. We need elders, deacons, teachers, mothers, and fathers. Such provides stability and guidance in an otherwise unstable world. Are you capable of providing “grown-up” care for those who are young in the church? Great!
