This and That

What's your favorite day of the year? In most instances our favorite days are days in which we receive things, whether it is gifts at holidays or visits from close friends and family. To ask this question to many people is to get many answers! Nearly everyone is going to answer in a different way. Kids would most assuredly answer, "Christmas", or "My Birthday", while parents may answer, "Mother's Day, Father's Day, or Thanksgiving".

Are you aware there is a day in which we all can receive gifts and visits from loved ones? Do you know that you could experience this day each week, and have the blessings each day of the year? The day is Sunday, each Sunday of each week. In speaking of this the writer says, "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it, Psalms 118:24." Jesus said he visits us as we worship, Matthew 18:20. We also visit other Christians. When Jesus is allowed to reign in our hearts, we receive gifts, Acts 2:38; Romans 6:23; Romans 12:5-8. By respecting Sunday above other days, we enjoy blessings every other day. "O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days, Psalms 90:14." Will you meet with us each Sunday?
