Congratulations to Anna Estes for making the decision to become a Christian. After confessing her faith in Jesus, she was baptized into Christ Sunday night by her grandfather, Kyle Lucas. The angels in heaven rejoice when one becomes a Christian. She was supported in her decision by parents, grandparents, and friends. We are proud of our children at Clay City Church of Christ and are joyful when they make good decisions. To become a Christian is the most important decision one can make. Please welcome Anna to the church family.

VBS 2013

Come and join us for fun and learning at VBS

Dates: Monday evening, June 3rd and continues thru Friday evening, June 9th.

Time: 6:30pm ó 8:30pm each evening

Death is not cessation of existence, it is not dissolution of the body, it is not annihilation. It is the separation of the body and the spirit. The body, when separated from the spirit, is said to be dead, not because it is inactive, cold, or even returning to the dust ó these are the effects which attend death. The cause is that the spirit which animated it and gave it life is no longer there. Throughout the sacred writings the departure of the spirit (or soul, when regarded as synonymous with the spirit) is regarded as the occasion of death. The following instances will illustrate this fact:

1. Genesis 25:8: “And Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years, and was gathered to his people.”
2. Genesis 35:18: “And it came to pass, as her soul was departing (for she died).”
3. 1 Kings 17:22: “And the Lord heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again and he revived.”
4. Psalm 90:10: “The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.”
5. Acts 7:59: “And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.”

In giving up the ghost, Abraham died; the departing of Rachel’s soul from her body resulted in her death; the child for whom the prophet prayed was dead and revived only when the soul returned to its body; the days of our years are terminated when that which is immortal flies away, and the martyr Stephen expired when his spirit left his bruised and broken body. The conclusion from this collation of scripture (which might be greatly extended) is irresistible, and establishes beyond reasonable doubt that death is simply the condition subsisting when the spirit is no longer in the body.
