God’s Assurance

There is no safer place in the world than in the center of God’s grace. Jesus Christ, the Shepherd of our souls, guards the way in and out, letting nothing and no one call our salvation into question or threaten to remove us from His care. We are in and we are staying in. John 10:27-20

Turn off all cell phones and prepare to worship God.

WE'RE ALL SICK

Some people are good at hiding their illnesses; some are not. Some people are good at guarding others from their pain; others share it. Some people are stoic in their suffering; others are emotional. One thing is for certain ó we're all sick.

Sin is the greatest sickness of humanity, it's the fundamental problem.

The symptoms are many (Romans 1:21-32).

The diagnosis is sure (Romans 3:23).

The prognosis is fatal if not treated (Romans 6:23a).

The remedy is 100% effective, if taken immediately (Romans 6:1-4).

We're all sick. It's obvious in some, not so much in others. But the outcome is the same. We'd all die of sin without Jesus Christ. To know Him, and to make Him known ó that's the only cure.

Caged

A boy with a rusty birdcage walked by a preacher. "What are you going to do with that bird?" asked the preacher.

"Oh, I'm just going to poke sticks at it, shake the cage, throw water on itó fun things like that."

"What are you going to do after that?"

"I don't know; probably just feed it to the cats."

"How much do you want for it?" asked the preacher.

"Aw, you don't want it; it's just an old field bird. It doesn't sing or nothing."

"How much?"

The boy thought awhile, and then said, "Two dollars." The preacher paid it. The boy grinned, and pocketed his money. Then he watched to see what the preacher would do with the bird. The preacher just opened the cage and turned it loose. The boy walked away, shaking his head over the craziness of some people.

The minister had something else in mind. Sin has caged each one of us and Satan has mankind in his grasp.

Jesus asks, "What are you going to do with them?"

"I'm just going to have fun with them. I'm going to tease them. I'm going to bring heartache and pain into their lives."

"And after that?"

"Well, when I get tired, I will take them to eternal destruction."

"I will buy them," says Jesus.

"You couldn't possibly want them! They will despise You, use Your name in vain and reject You. Then they will kill You."

"I will give my life."

Jesus paid the price, and set us free (Ephesians 1:7). Won't you accept His offer on His terms?

⁷ In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
