*You may never know
Where the seed you sow
Will take up its abode
It may be sown
Among dry stone
Or fall by the side of the road.*

*It can be choked
In a thorny copse
And lie unused and cold
But the seed you impart
To an honest heart
Can be fruitful and hundred fold.*

*If it falls your lot
To water the plot
Behind a brother's sowing
You must not cease
God gives increase
So the seed will keep on growing.*

*You can be sure
The seed is pure
It will either approve or condemn
The Word's sin's cure
It will always endure
And never returns void to Him.*
