- As stated last week, we still need to complete the “Our History” portion of the website. It is good to gather this information for historical reasons and to have to share with those who visit our website. This should include the when, where, who, etc. of our past. Please help complete this. If you could write something down on paper and give it to Daniel Newell, it would be greatly appreciated.
- For the next 11 Wednesday nights (except the 2nd and 5th) we will have a special presentation from Apologetics Press. See Daniel Newell for more details.

This and That

The Corinthian church grew out of a population that was worldly and worshippers of idols. It took a while for them to develop and mature as Paul hoped. The 1st Corinthian letter was written to address many of the problems they were experiencing. Division, worldly wisdom, pride, fornication, confrontational lawsuits, and misunderstanding of the resurrection all were issues that confronted the church there. They were also wishing for the miraculous powers that were available to those whom the Spirit chose. Paul writes very important pieces of scripture in the 13th chapter of First Corinthians. Here he tries to convey the thought that nothing matters if love isn't present. Love should be the motivating factor in our relationships. I would like to share that chapter with you in the English Standard Version of the Bible.

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.² And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.³ If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

- ⁴ Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant⁵ or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;⁶ it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.⁷ Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
- ⁸ Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part,¹⁰ but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away.¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways.¹² For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.
- ¹³ So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Think about it. Daniel Newell
