.....the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. James 5:16

Man glories in earthly endeavor and worldly achievements. A young man who can carry a football for great yardage and many touchdowns not only glories in his achievement, but is rewarded with a multi-million dollar contract. A man who can drive a car at death defying speed is placed on a pedestal of fame and glories in what he has done. A young executive designs a business that makes him extremely wealthy and he can boast of his acumen. But these were not the things in which Paul would glory. He would glory in the cross of Christ and the preaching of the cross, 1 Corinthians

Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? 4. Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. 5. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: Romans 6:3-5

This and That

The Bible is a most wonderful book. It is actually 66 books written by about 40 authors over a period of 1,600 years. There are 39 books of the Old Testament and 27 books of the New. The whole of it agrees completely and there are no contradictions. The apostle Paul writes that it is "given by inspiration of God". Some interesting facts about the Bible:

It was written by those who were directed by the Holy Ghost. Peter said, "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost". This means they wrote what God wanted written. Therefore when one reads the Bible he truly is reading the word of God.

The Bible contains power to change lives. When it is read and appropriated to life, it may have a profound impact on the individual. The writer states, "For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart", Hebrews 4:12. It can change one from a persecutor to helper (Paul) or one who is impulsive and at times weak (Peter) to a strong witness for Jesus. It can and does change lives today.

The Bible provides all that is needed to live profitable and meaningful lives. According to Peter, God has "given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue". By taking heed to His word we have all the information and instruction needed to know who we are, what our purpose is in life, and know how to secure our latter end.

The Bible is able to lift people to a higher and nobler existence. In Paul's time people were lifted above paganism and idolatrous living to Godly lives in Jesus. Relationships were improved between nations and guidelines were given for masters and slaves. People from distant lands became brothers and sisters, mothers and fathers.

The Bible is widely available today and is ready to help you in your everyday life. Will you read and study it carefully? Will you apply its teachings and see the good that results. Think about it.
