.....the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. James 5:16

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; 4. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? 5. For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. 6. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: Psalms 8:3-6

SUPPOSE I'M VISITING in your home and I notice a lovely vase on the coffee table...

I pick it up and admire it, but suddenly, it slips from my hand, falls to the floor, and breaks! "Oh, I'm so sorry," I say, and I offer to pay for it. I know I have a fifty-dollar bill in my wallet, so I think I'm safe.

But you tell me there are only two such vases in the world, and the other one is valued at $2,000! Am I any sorrier now than I was a few moments ago? Yes. I am $2,000 sorrier! What made the difference? Knowing the cost.

THOUGHT: Many people look carelessly upon Christianity, thinking it's just another of the world's great religions. But when we look at the Cross of Calvary and realize what our salvation cost, suddenly Christianity and the One whose life it represents take on a whole new meaning.

So, then, what value do you place on Jesus? George Vandeman

This and That

Most scholars agree that Jesus was about 33 years old when He was crucified. It was at this time that the church was established in Jerusalem on the first Pentecost after His death and resurrection. The church has been perpetuated ever since (almost 2,000 years) by men and women that loves the truth and wants to serve God through Jesus. It seems, however, that in every generation there is a concern about the church, as to whether it will continue to stand and abide faithful. These concerns are unfounded if we are busy teaching our sons and daughters how to do the work of the church. The key word here is "if". Are we training our children in the right ways of the Lord? Are we bringing them up in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord"? Our sons need to be taught:

How to pray; Prayer is communication with God and we are instructed to pray always and without ceasing. The disciples came to Jesus once and asked Him to teach them how to pray. This is recorded in Luke 11. Jesus proceeded to give them a prayer that included reverence to God and His word, desire for daily blessings, forgiveness from sin, and deliverance from evil. Our sons need to know how to lead a public prayer.

How to teach and preach; this requires much study and dedication to the word. Paul taught Timothy and Titus how to do this and they contributed to the spiritual welfare of several churches. We need "faithful to the word preachers" for the admonition and encouragement of the congregation both now and in the future. Out of such young men elders and deacons may grow for the future care of the church.

How to lead singing; singing is important to the edification of the church. Many wonderful songs have been written that praises God and Christ as well as builds us up to richer and more meaningful service.

Our daughters need to be taught how to teach the young. They should be taken under the wings of current teachers and shown how to design and deliver lessons that instruct and encourage. They also need to be taught how to love their (future or current) husbands and children as well as how to guide the home and serve God in this capacity. They should be taught how to study their Bibles, prepare communion or care for the church building. This is only a sample of the things we should be teaching our children. Think about it.
