Greater love hath no man ..... John 15:13

=====

Have you contacted a shut-in lately? Why not today. One phone call does make a difference.

This and That

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever, 1 John 2:15-17.

John was an Apostle of our Lord. He was one of the “inner circle”, which included Peter and James. The three were privileged to witness and participate in things others were not. John would certainly be qualified to instruct us in the things that were important to Jesus and therefore to Christian living. According to what we just read from John, the things we should care most about are not “things of the world”. Of course, we must participate in things in the world, but we must not get wrapped up in the lusts and pride of the world. Jesus talked of this in his prayer to the Father recorded in John 17:9-17. He ended by saying, “I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.”

Since we cannot leave the world until our death, we must seek to keep ourselves from the evil of the world. We must set ourselves apart from the world by obeying the truth found in the Bible. We do this individually by reading our Bibles each day and practicing what we find written there while living as an American citizen. Collectively we accomplish this goal by attending the worship services with our church family, and participating in church activities. Are we seeking to fulfill God’s will for our lives or are we following the world to do evil? Think about it. ....
