Dates to Remember:

Men's Business Meetings are the first Sunday of each month immediately following morning worship. Plan to attend and be a part of the decision making process of the congregation.

Stanton Nursing Home Services are the third Sunday of each month, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Please join us in making our congregation a light in the community.

Our Church Singing is the second Wednesday night of each month. Singing night is an important part of our worship. Please plan to attend. Your presence encourages others.

Radio Our sermons are taped for broadcast and can be heard each Sunday morning, beginning at 8:30. Please make an effort to listen to our lesson on the air. You may pick up a message you missed the first time around. WSKV – 104.9 FM

Food Pantry: Help those less fortunate by contributing to the food pantry. Our pantry is helping others often. Please bring non-perishable items so that you may help others. Please make this important work a part of your personal ministry.

Remind your friends of our free Bible Correspondence Course. If it has been some time since you have taken this course – why not consider taking it again as a refresher course?

3 John 1:2
 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.

When I feel sick, I pray as if I am already reading the end of the story in which I am in health and prospering. After all, that's what the script says is going to happen!

This and That

The Bible teaches of a place called heaven. It is the abode of God. Jesus now reigns from there and angels minister there. Based on what I read from the Word of God, heaven is the place I want to go to when this life is over. Some of the reasons I want to go there is:

1. There will be no sin there. None of the ugliness so often prevalent in our world will be allowed. No one will hate another and pride and prejudice will be unknown. There will be no “big I’s or little u’s”. None will be rich while still more are poor and without necessities. Everyone will be equally supplied with God’s goodness.
2. We will live eternally. There will be no fear of death or disfigurement and our lives will be filled with contentment. We shall have a home eternal in the heavens. Jesus referred to our homes as “mansions” in John 14. It will be wonderful to be given a life that honors and fulfills God’s will for us.
3. Many friends and family, God’s faithful, have gone before us into their eternal rewards. We cannot speak with them nor spend time with them in this life ever again. We are left with memories of these relationships. They can and will be renewed in heaven. Won’t it be wonderful to see them again?
4. Great Bible characters will be there. We will be able to meet and speak with such great people as Abraham. Joseph, Daniel, John the Baptist, Peter, Paul and most of all, Jesus Christ. It will be wonderful to speak with these and live with them forever.
5. “there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” Revelation 21:4.

To get there one must live faithfully to our Lord while on earth. Are you a faithful, obedient servant of Jesus? Think about it. Daniel Newell

When it comes to Satan, be very serious-minded. Don't be flippant about his intentions. His desire is clear: to destroy your testimony and life for Christ. Therefore, stand firm in your faith. Commit yourself to prayer and you will gain the victory! Be self-controlled and alert. (1 Peter 5:8).

What we do in life echoes in eternity....
