A man in Jacksonville, Florida discovered a two-headed lizard. The heads are at opposite ends. When it tries to walk, its legs move in opposite directions. That lizard reminds me of the Bible verse: "A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways."

He's a man with two heads. One believes, the other doesn't. One wants to do good, the other wants to do evil. One turns to God and the other turns from Him. Every decision he makes is uncertain. He turns first this way, and then that.

Believe wholeheartedly, yield completely, and avoid the frustration and failure of double-minded person.

It is the responsibility of all Christians to learn and keep God's moral law, and to understand Godly principles outlined in the Bible.

Have you contacted a shut-in lately? Why not today.

The food pantry ministry is a wonderful work that belongs to all of us. Please bring in your nonperishable items as you have the chance.

God is crazy about you. He sends you flowers every spring and a sunrise every morning. Whenever you want to talk, He'll listen. He can live anywhere in the universe, and He chose your heart.

This and That

“Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain”, Exodus 20:7. This is one of the commandments that Jehovah declared unto Moses and the children of Israel. Just what does this mean? Does this commandment apply to us today?

The word vain means empty and useless. Therefore to take the name of the Lord in vain would be to use it in an empty and useless way. Examples of this are:

- ?? “Lordy, Lordy, Daniel is ~ 40”
- ?? “Good God,-or- Good Lord you are a mess ”
- ?? “My God, just look at this room”
- ?? “Jesus Christ, why did he do that?”

There are more subtle word combinations that just as easily fit into this category. Does this apply to us today? The Old Testament does not contain laws that apply to Christians today. They do, however contain examples. In the New Testament we find, Hallowed be thy name, Matt. 6:9, Holy is his name, Luke 1:49. We are baptized into the name of Jesus. We find salvation in the name of Jesus; we find ones guilty that trod under foot the Son of God. We would be offended if someone used our name in an empty, flippant way. Do we feel the same about our Lord? Think about it. Daniel Newell
