Sunday P.M.: Ephesians Chapter Four Daniel Newell

“I sought the LORD, and he answered me;
he delivered me from all my fears.
Those who look to him are radiant;
their faces are never covered with shame.
This poor man called, and the LORD heard him;
he saved him out of all his troubles.
The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him,
and he delivers them.”

Eternity is Coming

William Russell of England, on scaffold about to be beheaded, took his watch from his pocket and gave it to Dr. Burnett, who was attending him, Russell told the Doctor, "My timepiece may be of service to you; I have no further occasion for it. My thoughts are fixed on eternity."

Eternity is an extremely hard concept for man to comprehend. In fact, eternity is so incomprehensible to the mind of mortal man that in all the Holy Bible the word "eternity" occurs but one time. That's in Isaiah 57:15 where the prophet says God, "inhabits eternity."

Perhaps we're just too wrapped up in day-to-day occurrences of the here and now. Whatever the reason, there is no doubt, we would benefit by giving more attention to the biblical teaching of the there and then. In order to survive on earth everyone needs to think more about the real final frontier - eternity itself.

I. Thou shalt love people, not just use them. The greatest thing in the world is a person. The greatest thing about a person is their motive, the greatest motive is love.

II. Thou shalt develop thy understanding. "If every man's care were written on his brow, how many would our pity share, who bear our envy now?"

III. Thou shalt compliment more than criticize. You had better cover your neighbor's fault with a cloak of charity. They may need a circus tent to cover yours.

IV. Thou shalt not get angry. If you are right, you don't need to. If you are wrong, you can't afford to.

V. Thou shalt not argue. It is no use to win the argument and lose people. Beware of the attitude which says: "In matters controversy, my attitude is fine. I always see two points of view, the one that is wrong and mine."

VI. Thou shalt be kind. You had better be kind to the people you meet on the way up! They are, the same ones you meet on the way down. It is nice to be important, but more important to be nice!

VII. Thou shalt have a sense of humor. A sense of humor is to a man what springs are to a wagon... it save him a lot of jolts.

VIII. Thou shalt smile. No one is ever fully dressed until they have a smile.

IX. Thou shalt practice what thou preaches. One example is worth a thousand arguments.

X. Thou shalt establish a long-range habit of people-manship. Good human relations can be the key to your success.
