The food pantry is in need of nonperishable food items including canned meats. This is an important ministry for our church and is a ministry in which we can all participate. In this way we are able to help those less fortunate.

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink..."

It is important for us to understand that prayer works—even if we can't "see" it! And we can use the power of prayer to direct our lives into positive and productive channels.

But many times our prayers require us to participate. You can't just sit there waiting for something to happen. You have to get out there and act in faith upon it.

It is great to pray for the Lord to bless you; but you and I know that we need to have seed in the ground that God can bless! Don't just look at the field and pray for a harvest—plant the seed and then pray for rain!

A little child in church for the first time watched as the ushers passed the offering plates. When they neared the pew where he sat, the youngster piped up so everyone could hear: "Don't pay for me Daddy, I'm under five!"

WHEN YOU THOUGHT I WASN'T LOOKING

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I immediately wanted to paint another one.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you feed the birds in winter, and I learned that it was good to be kind to animals.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you make my favorite cake for me, and I learned that the little things can be the special things in life.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you make a meal and take it to a friend who was sick, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you take care of our house and everyone in it, and I learned we have to take care of what we are given.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good, and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you hold the door open for others and heard 'thank you', 'you're welcome', and 'please' and I learned respect for others.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw tears come from your eyes, and I learned that sometimes things hurt, but it's all right to cry.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw that you cared, and I wanted to be everything that I could be.

When you thought I wasn't looking I learned most of life's lessons that I need to know to be a good and productive person when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking I looked at you and wanted to say, Thanks for all the things I saw when you thought I wasn't looking.'
