I will meditate on your precepts and have respect to your ways [the paths of life marked out by your law]. I will delight myself in your statutes; I will not forget your word. Deal bountifully with your servant that I may live; and I will observe your word [hearing, receiving, loving, and obeying it]. Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law. Psalm 119:15-18

Lord, I thought I had so little, but you have made me rich in ways I hadn't noticed before today. Thank you!

FIVE MORE MINUTES

=====

While at the park one day, a woman sat down next to a man on a bench near a playground.

"That's my son over there," she said, pointing to a little boy in a red sweater who was gliding down the slide.

"He's a fine looking boy," the man said.
"That's my son on the swing in the blue sweater."

Then, looking at his watch, he called to his son,
"What do you say we go, Todd?"

Todd pleaded, "Just five more minutes, Dad. Please?"

Just five more minutes." The man nodded and Todd continued to swing to his heart's content.

Minutes passed and the father stood and called again to his son.
"Time to go now?"

Again Todd pleaded, "Five more minutes, Dad. Just five more minutes."

The man smiled and said, "O.K."

"My, you certainly are a patient father," the woman responded.

The man smiled and then said, "My older son Michael was killed by a drunk driver last year while he was riding his bike near here. I never spent much time with Michael and now I'd give anything for just five more minutes with him. I've vowed not to make the same mistake with Todd.

He thinks he has five more minutes to swing.

The truth is, I get five more minutes to watch him play."

Life is all about making priorities. Life changes with one accident. Life changes with one diagnosis. What are your priorities?

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33
