Do you realize what Christ's coming did for you?
Do you understand how clean you are from the stain of sin?
Do you know what God sees when He looks at you?
There's a book in God's library which lists all the sin He is holding against you.

One of the most valuable aids to daily life is Scripture Memorization. In fact, when I encounter someone who is battling discouragement or depression, I often ask two questions: "Are you singing to the Lord?" and "Are you memorizing Scripture?" These two exercises are not some magical formula to make all our problems go away, but they do have incredible power to change our perspective and attitude toward the issues we are facing.

Scripture Memory and Meditation will bring about many benefits in your life, including:

- cleansing and renewing your mind;
- keeping you from sin;
- providing insight and direction in the midst of real-life situations;
- strengthening your spirit;
- combating the attacks of the enemy on your mind and emotions;
- stimulating spiritual desires;
- diminishing the demands of your flesh;
- protecting you from wrong thinking patterns; and
- fixing your mind and affections on "thing above" (Colossians 3:2).

WHEN I SAY, "I AM A CHRISTIAN"

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not shouting, "I've been saved!"
I'm whispering, "I get lost!
That's why I chose this way"

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I don't speak with human pride
I'm confessing that I stumble—
Needing God to be my guide

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not trying to be strong
I'm professing that I'm weak
And pray for strength to carry on

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not bragging of success
I'm admitting that I've failed
And cannot ever pay the debt

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I don't think I know it all
I submit to my confusion
Asking humbly to be taught

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I'm not claiming to be perfect
My flaws are all too visible
But God believes I'm worth it

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I still feel the sting of pain
I have my share of heartache,
Which is why I seek His name

When I say, "I am a Christian"
I do not wish to judge
I have no authority...
I only know I'm loved.
